

Benton Caroline Fern, Ph.D.

Vice-President,
University of Tsukuba

benton.ft@un.tsukuba.ac.jp

Dr. Benton has been Vice President of Global Affairs of the University of Tsukuba since 2013. She also serves on the Japanese Association of National Universities' International Exchange Committee, the IOC's Education Commission, and the Research Organization for Information and Systems' Education and Research Council. Her research interests lie in leadership and knowledge management. She received her B.S. degree from the University of California, Davis, MBA from the University of Tsukuba, and Ph.D. from the Tokyo Institute of Technology.